

We're honored to share that InVestra has been named a 2026 Best of South Carolina Regional Winner in the Financial Advisors category by Guide to South Carolina.

The Best of South Carolina awards are an annual celebration of standout businesses and organizations across the state. Throughout the year, readers nominate and vote for the businesses they love; votes are tabulated, reviewed, and compiled along with the publication's editor's picks. Winners are recognized across three tiers: Best of South Carolina, Regional Winner, and Honorable Mention.

For InVestra, this recognition is especially meaningful because it reflects community participation and support in a category centered on helping individuals, families, and businesses make confident financial decisions. Our team remains focused on client-centered guidance across financial planning, asset management, retirement planning, estate planning, tax planning, risk management, insurance, business planning, and trust services.

Thank you to everyone who voted, supported, and encouraged us. We're grateful to be recognized among South Carolina businesses serving their communities with care and purpose.
